RIWI Signs New Security Contract Valued Over $1.1 Million

Toronto, ON – RIWI Corp. (CSE: RIW) (OTC: RWCRF) (the “Company” or “RIWI”), a global trend-tracking and prediction technology firm, is pleased to report that it has signed a new contract of more than US$1.1 million to complete a series of rapid-response task orders on behalf of a G7 agency mandated to protect international security. The period of this new contract lasts until December 31, 2021. The Company has already completed work on varied activities under the contract.

On behalf of the US Department of State and other G7 agencies, RIWI’s work in peace-building and global security helps senior decision-makers assess, predict, prevent and eradicate violent extremism in all regions of the world. The G7 consists of the seven top-ranked advanced economies: Canada, France, Germany, Italy, Japan, the United Kingdom and the United States.

“This new contract for rapid-response work speaks to the power of our technology and to our commitment to continuous customer delivery excellence,” said Neil Seeman, the Company’s Chief Executive Officer.

“This new work further cements our security business line as being central to RIWI’s long-term revenue growth – and represents an exciting milestone for our 2020 growth trajectory,” added Mr. Seeman, who also leads the Company’s sales and data solutions for the security sector.
